I'm not a robot

Generate a License Zip file then follow Method 2 above to activate the software

Manual Activation

If there is no internet connection use this method for activation. The method will activate the software temporarily and will request online validation later on.

You would need to email your

1. ORDER ID
2. COMPUTER ID
3. PRODUCT NAME

To our support team. You should receive a Zipped Package File and a License File by email within few hours.

There is two methods to do this:

Method 1

Run the software > Activation Screen will Pop up > Click on the Folder with key icon > Click to Browse to the zipped License package file > Click on continue button to activate the license.

Method 2

Copy the zipped file (The zipped package emailed “DON'T UNZIP IT!”) to the Software default installation folder, this is likely to be something similar to
C:\Program Files (x86)\webbusterz\[Product Name]

Then run the software from the desktop short cut and this should work.
